

When you imagine being a Sign Language Interpreter what do you see?
Working with people
Taking sign language college classes
See myself working at a High School

What are the things that make me feel empowered or good?
Sports
Being around people
Learning sign language
Helping out others (like my Grandma & younger kids)
Lifting weights & exercising

What do I know about Sign Language Interpreter?

- You learn how to communicate with your hands
- You learn sign language to communicate words
- Work maybe with one student
- You have to hear words that are spoken - like a teacher and then sign it to the HI student
- Need to understand how to learn a lot of words in sign language
- Have to have good listening skills
- Have to be focused on how to interrupt words

What I like.	What I don't like.
Being with people	Getting up in the morning
Helping out others	Being in the middle of a crowd
Help people understand things	When I have to be focussed
Playing a good time	Trying to do to many things
Playing games	Keeping up with social situations

Some job ideas are.....
Maybe be an EA in a classroom
Asst Coach for a young sports team
Maybe work at St. Charles Hospital in the cafeteria or maybe deliver the food to the rooms
Works at a Senior Citizen Center--maybe run activities like BINGO or exercises

Knowing myself..... I might like jobs that allow me to.....
Help & Support people
Socialize & help figure things out
Care for others
Work with kids